

THE STEAM RUNNER

Nikol Tesla Bradwyn, or to her friends and family—Tes, lives in a present world very much unlike our own. Knowledge, science, and physics are the peak of human acceptance; chess reigns as the supreme sport where football is something only a laborer would watch. Free running is even less accepted, but Tes doesn't care about that. Night after night it's that love of running that brings her back to race across buildings and through pipelines illegally. It's the only thing she understands when...

Reader's Opinions

I used to like watching James Bond movies I'm not talking about Daniel Craig post-reboot, not that I have any issue with those. BUT with Sean Connery or Roger Moore, they'd begin with some action scene which would (usually) tie in to the plot, although it might not be immediately obvious how that happens. Then, you'd meet the villain...
