

WITH GRACE

A man yearning to explore his sexual tastes but afraid to turn up the heat, the woman who loves him but is hungry for more spice... and the chef who craves them both. When Grace, Philip and Mark find a mobster's flash drive full of incriminating information, they are quickly embroiled in a dangerous situation. They stay together for safety, but proximity ignites the sparks they've long...

Reader's Opinions

I just love how easy Samantha's writing is to read. I honestly started, and the next thing I know my kindle is telling me I'm forty percent of the way through. It was emotional, hot and they all just drew me into their world. The sense of danger was a nice touch and while it never got too close (other than briefly once) the fact that...

4.0 Stars! I've read a few books by Samantha Wayland, but I think this has been my favorite read she's penned by far. Hot & romantic with a bit of mystery and whodunnit. I really liked Philip and how he threw himself headlong into his attraction to Mark with only a bit of fear trying to hold him back - fear he just rationalized away with...
