Reader's Opinions

I just saw Private Lives in London! Terrific play and one of his best. I was just reminded of why his plays live on and always seem fresh while set in a different period. So witty and true. Love Blithe Spirit too.

I really enjoyed the first two plays in this volume, although found "Private Lives" too brittle. They must be wonderful on stage. Noel Coward is perhaps more well known for his image rather than his works, but these plays all read as classics.
