

AND KEEP YOUR POWDER DRY: AN ANTHROPOLOGIST LOOKS AT AMERICA

With an Introduction by Hervé Varenne, Columbia University. Margaret Mead wrote this comprehensive sketch of the culture of the United States - the first since de Tocqueville - in 1942 at the beginning of the Second World War, when Americans were confronted by foreign powers from both Europe and Asia in a particularly challenging manner. Mead's work became an instant classic. It was required reading for anthropology students for nearly two decades, and...
