

FOUR IN THE GARDEN: A SPIRITUAL FANTASY ABOUT TRUST AND TRANSFORMATION

2015 Readers' Favorite award winner. An unusual retelling of the Garden of Eden story, Four in the Garden is a thought-provoking allegory of one's relationship with God. It is a spiritual fantasy that explores a primordial world where God creates only one human, named Cherished. Three Teachers guide Cherished along his erratic journey toward understanding...

Reader's Opinions

Four in the Garden is simply one of those books you just hate to put down. I was drawn into the story line immediately, and thought it was a great way to demonstrate "Creator" and all that a spiritual life entails. It came to me while reading this, that it would...

Four In The Garden is an allegorical story similar to the writings of C.S. Lewis. It is most similar to Lewis' "Space Trilogy", as the theological ideas are much more pronounced than those in the Narnia series. If you like Lewis, particularly the Space Trilogy, you will like this book. The two great strengths of this book are its characters...
