

KING SHIT

A Chihuahua-toting Mexican dressed as Santa Claus. A cross-dressing bartender. A drunk, philosophizing “Classy” Fred Blassie look-alike. Two rockabilly-greaser junkies. A bow-legged burlesque dancer and her angry dwarf lover. A man in a smelly lavender suit who rides a mobile jukebox. A quarreling, beer-spitting couple. No, this isn’t The Breakfast Club. This is a not-so-glorious night in the life of Elvis McAllister: factory worker,...

Reader's Opinions

This book reminded me that , while I don't miss working in a bar, part of me misses watching all the fucked up fuck ups fucking up. This short little book is, for me, a chance to rubberneck as I drive home to a sleeping girlfriend, the WWE Network, and a slightly-above-level-humidifier.In reading this book and looking over the...
