Reader's Opinions

The first scene caught on like rapid fire. Have you ever felt like you aren't good enough? Or that you don't know who you are, that everything you believed about yourself just doesn't fit right? How about like you are nothing? Well, you NEED to read The Carpenter's Daughter by Jennifer Rodewald. And that first scene ignites this journey...

Jennifer Rodewald's writing is deep and it's real and thought provoking and I love it. There was only one part I could have done without. The cussing. (may not be proper, but it's how we say it...
