Reader's Opinions

Surrendered Hearts by Carrie Turansky Jennifer Evans has lost her faith. How could a loving God take everything away from her? First her parents and then her home, dog, fiance and she was left disfigured. When she goes to Tipton, Vermont with hopes that her brother will take her in, she sees people living their faith. Can she make room...

This book was just OK. I picked it up for a quick read and it served that purpose. The characters are relatable and enjoyable, but I had the end figured out by chapter 2....
