

SPARE DICK

Bringing another guy into the bedroom was supposed to spice up Kevin and Jill's married life. But when Jill insists their third should be someone they don't know, Kevin's concerned. His police detective mentality doesn't want a stranger in their bed. Then his new partner volunteers for the job. Adam Heller's more than willing to satisfy Jill's and Kevin's every desire. It's the perfect solution. Jill doesn't know who Hell is and Kevin has the security of including someone he trusts. What could possibly go wrong? Their night at a...

Reader's Opinions

Jill is looking to spice up her sex life with her husband, Kevin, so she comes up with the idea of bringing in a third person to have sex with both of them. Her requirement is that it shouldn't be someone either of them know. Of course, Kevin doesn't want a stranger with his wife, so he shares his problem with his new work partner, Hell,...
