

CONSIDER THE THORNS

Barbara Houlton is a best-selling romance author, known for her achingly sweet love stories. However, her own love-life is nothing to write home about. Raped on the eve of her high-school graduation, she was left pregnant and scarred, both emotionally and physically. She has learned to hide the physical scars, but the emotional scars that taint her soul become harder to hide each day. Sarcasm, avoidance and denial have become weapons to keep her monstrous...

Reader's Opinions

The storyline in this book was good. I wish this author would use more contractions. Sometimes they can be overdone, but not using them made this story seem choppy.

The subject of recover from rape and sexual assault is not something I've ever seen tackled in a Christian Romance novel before, but Michelle Lynn Brown did a masterful job. She realistically showed the difficulty of a woman's...
