

TOUCH OF FONDNESS

Four friends. Four college grads. Four people figuring out that life doesn't always turn out the way you expected. Brielle Reyes may not have post-college life planned out like some of her friends do, but she figures she'll work for her mother's home cleaning service while job hunting for something that makes...

Reader's Opinions

Short review. ARC review. The story is about recently college graduate Brielle trying to carve out a life for herself while dealing with a overbearing mother who doesn't want her living at home or working for,...

received an ARC for honest review via netgalley! wanted to like this book. Positives are, it is a quick read. The author approaches a new love situation and MC challenges, that is being disabled. I love how it brought to light those growing up in a wheelchair and the insecurities the MC, Archer...
