Reader's Opinions

It's a lovely selection of some of Heaney's best mid career poems. What's not to like? It doesn't have the unity of a collection but then again there's no weak or less interesting poems. Many of those included are...

There is no denying Heaney's brilliance. These early poems reveal his Irish heritage with rich, stark images: you can smell the bogs, hear the water running alongside the "broagh" (a wonderful poem that reminds us gently of...
