Reader's Opinions

At first I wasn't too sure about this manga, I was really impressed by how the short little vignettes really built on each other. This might be technically a collection of short stories, but there's really no way to read them except from cover to cover. Each new scene giving...

One of my favorite manga in general, I'm surprised I didn't add it to my list before. Though Yoshinaga's distinct style lacks in much variation between her characters, her stories are the best part of the book. I especially loved the story of a...
