Reader's Opinions

Graphic novels aren't my favorite but I enjoyed the images in this one. If I haven't read the blurb before I started I'm not sure I would have understood the story. Given that...

Two women, their mother, all sad, living quietly isolated lives, all bruised by encounters with men, who escape into fantasies of aliens, alternate selves. The art is pencil drawing, sometimes deliberately smudged, just to give it the feel of realism and accessibility, to match the simplicity and isolation of the workmen's lives. I...
