Reader's Opinions

Review posted on Got Fiction?Some SpoilersThis is the third book in Cathy Maxwell's Marrying the Duke trilogy, and it can be read as a stand alone. You'll see mentions of the previous 2 books, and from what I gathered, the previous 2 books were about this hero's previous 2 fiancées. It seems that the Duke of Baynton can't keep a fiancée....

A Date at the Altar is a good book. I am not able to say that I loved it, but it was a satisfying read. I loved how the author managed to fulfill the prophecy without killing anyone. I am glad everyone was happy in the end and how things fell into place. As someone who has followed the series I was happy to see Gavin getting his happily...
