

HONEST MASKS

Chloe Halliday has held the artistic life at bay for as long as she can remember. She's kept her real life quiet and her sex life to cyber space, fearing any real connection and the potential disruption it could bring to her life. Max and James have been lovers for years. They live on a commune for geniuses and hold parties, taking many lovers and indulging the senses at every opportunity. But Max is haunted by trouble from his past and James aches...
