Reader's Opinions

This story was just OK. Everything felt a little rushed and there wasn't much of a connection between the characters. There was a mystery involving the death of Sierra's parents that wasn't resolved in this book. I want to know what happens so I will be reading the next one in this series.

It was just ok (M/M/F), all vamps are born male and mate with human females for a triad, who may or may not be transformed. Everything was kind of just highlighted to get to the...
