

DEJA VU BRIDE

Furious with God, Olivia Roseman vows to never trust Him again. Why should she? Once again her prayers have gone unanswered, and once again another loved one has been ripped from her. With no job and only a few dollars, Olivia makes a choice to start over again. Without God and without love. However, her handsome new boss isn't going to make forgetting God or keeping her vow to never love again very easy. Erik...

Reader's Opinions

This book touched me on so many levels! The first thought is that every teenage girl ought to read this to know what to hold out for. Erik is a perfect example of...

I enjoyed reading this book. The author is good! Olivia's life was so hard and I felt her pain. The author also did make it very realistic and like every normal person would blame themselves for deaths of loved ones and turning against God in the time of pain, her journey to healing was slow and like a seed planted, it grew. It wasn't...
