Reader's Opinions

Came across this in a library while I was looking to kill some time and read in in one sitting. I've been interested in learning more about Emma Goldman and this certainly helps with the rough biography and a brief intro to hear ideas. The graphic aspect certainly made it more readable. Overall, I wasn't blown away, but the book...

i love there are books like this. it covered emma's life from childhood to death. however, there was so much information to cover that parts of it seemed too abbreviated and there were some definite parts that were choppy to read--as in the flow of the page wasn't clear as to what order to read what came...
