Reader's Opinions

I think I liked this one better than the first, but there's still something that I can't put my finger on that makes me not just fall in love with these books. I'm not giving up on this series though. That's for...

THE FIRE WITHIN has plenty of sex but little emotional intimacy which I look for in romance. The eroticism is so scorching and well-written it almost made up for the lack of emotional connection between the leads but not quite.
