Reader's Opinions

I enjoyed this book I couldn't put it down. I hope you make a sequel to it because I'd like to read what happens when the baby grows up.

It lacked continually First the name of the story is about a menage with two Dragons. There are no dragons at all and especially not two. It is about a clueless bear shifter that doesn't know anything about shifters, and his professor and their attraction. The characters were flat, though now and again it looked like it would get better...
