

IN FULL VOICE: SHEDDING THE LABELS THAT SILENCED ME

Fiona Havlish is an engaging inspirational speaker and success coach whose stories entertain and inspire those going through drastic life transitions. You would never guess that she stuttered as a child and spent the better part of her life trying to remain invisible while navigating her own journey in silence, hiding behind her roles as wife, mother, and nurse. On September 11 2001, after dropping her daughter off at childcare, she answered her cell phone oblivious to the fact that she was about to...

Reader's Opinions

Not my usual reading material but I found this memoir thoroughly enlightening and interesting. Very well written and easy to read
