

LOATHING LOLA

Fifteen-year-old Courtney Marlow didn't exactly think it through. She thought the offer to have her life broadcast on national television was the perfect solution to her family's financial troubles. She was wrong. Mackenzie Dahl, the show's producer, promised to show Australia a real teenager. Courtney was going to be a positive role model, someone on television without a boob job and an eating disorder. Soon, everyone wants their 15 minutes of fame via a little bit of Courtney – especially her conniving friend Katie, and her stepmother, Lola. And Courtney is...

Reader's Opinions

I think this was a pretty well-written book of its genre. I know for a fact that fame isn't easy to write about, seeing as you have to rely on instincts on what the main character feels like. I think this book displays a well-knowledge of the main character, Courtney, but she struck me as flat throughout most...

This was a fun book with interesting characters. I particularly enjoyed the dialogue, which was quite funny and a little bit edgy in places. The reality TV show storyline was interesting and I...
